The Oldest Man in the World

Just part of a skull, two molar teeth and a thigh bone! Pieced together they made—what? One of the most perplexing mysteries in the study of human history. Were these the remains of an ape-like man who lived 500,000 years ago? Scientists believe that they were; they call him the "Dawn Man," and out of the record embedded in the rocks they have reconstructed the conditions of his life. How he killed his food and tore the raw flesh from the bones; how he married and fought and died! How little by little he clawed and clubbed his way up to mastery over the beasts. It is a fascinating, gripping story, but it is only one of a thousand stories that stir your blood in this greatest book of modern times.

H. G. WELLS' "Outline of History"

Now Offered You at One-Third the Original Price

A history that goes back 100,000,000 years—that traces man's race beginning 500,000 years ago—that follows him down through the ages to the Babylon of Nebuchadnezzar, the Egypt of Cleopatra, the France of Napoleon, the America of today, through the Great War and on into the future United States of the World—that gives ALL history as one story—that is Wells'.

Not only the history of the world, but the science of the world; the outstanding literature of the world; the philosophy of the world—a vast panorama unrolled before your eyes by the most graphic word painter of modern times.

And The Review of Reviews Too

Wells begins with the dawn of time; before there were men; before there were even reptiles. In broad, magnificent strokes he paints the picture, bringing you straight down to 1920. Alexander the Great; the Crusades; and Nero; and Charlemagne and Napoleon; Pericles and Genghis Khan; Constantine and Akbar; Galileo and Marco Polo. Never a dull moment. Never a paragraph that is not crystal clear.

And where Wells stops the Review of Reviews takes up the story. His is the history of the past; the Review of Reviews records and interprets the history of the world today. It is telling that these two should be joined together. By joining them we are able to offer you an educational course such as you get at no school in the land.

Merely clip and mail the coupon below. Your copy of Wells' will go forward immediately, on approval. But do it now! You may never have another chance.

"MOLLY'S AUNT."

The High School Junior class will present "Molly's Aunt" at the court house Friday night at 7:30. The visit of an unmarried aunt to the home of the young people puts them on their extreme good behavior, which proves to be entirely unnecessary as the aunt proves to be the gayest of them all. The whole play is full of humor and you should not miss it. Following is the

Cast of Characters:

Denman Griggs.....Vernon Buttram.
Marrietta Griggs.....Ruth Taylor.
Molly Griggs.....Vera Lewis.
Chubby Jones.....Lester Bandy.
Fred Fitzgerald.....Mark Tucker.
Seraphina Peabody.....Cora Lee De-Rossett.

There is great rivalry between the classes in staging these plays for the school. All the proceeds go to pay for stage equipment and other paraphernalia for the school. Admission 15 cents for students; 25 cents for adults.

VALENTINE SOCIAL GIVEN BY MEMBERS OF B. Y. P. U.

A most enjoyable affair of the week was the Valentine social given by the B. Y. P. U. for the young people of the Christian Endeavor Society, at Potter Hall, Monday evening.

Valentine emblems were artistically arranged throughout the hall.

An interesting program was carried out which included the following: Humorous Readings by Clyde Mitchell. Solo by Miss Alice Jernigen. Vocal Duet; Miss Alice Jernigen and W. L. Guthrie. Reading by Miss Lillie Bilibrey. Numerous games and contests were enjoyed until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served.

Fresh Bread

I now have my bakery in operation and bake each day at four o'clock, which means you can get fresh bread and rolls at that hour. We use the best flour we can get and feel that we turn out bread that has no superior. Give me a trial.

T. M. RECTOR.

Ed Campbell, of Pomona, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

E. Z. Farmer was over from Daysville attending court.

FOR SALE—MY house and one acre of land. L. F. Hardin, Crossville.

Mr. and Mrs. Keyton and little daughters, Jacqueline and Madelon, of Greenville, are visiting home folks, the Keyton family.

Mrs. Andy Elmore went to Mayland the first of the week to look after purchasing some chairs for the Christian church.

For drilling test holes and water wells see J. H. Graham, Pomona. 12-21-131*

Sheriff Cain Burnett arrived here Saturday to drive his car home. It had been here some weeks because of bad roads. He left Sunday for his home at Dayton.

The second quarterly conference of the Crossville charge will be held Sunday, February 19, at Pomona M. E. Church, South, the presiding elder, Rev. W. T. Beasley, will preach at the eleven o'clock hour.

FOR SALE—Pair good-sized, coming three-year-old horse mules. Price $200, one-third cash, balance time. L. R. Neel, Mayland. 2-8-tf.

Mrs. W. L. Terry arrived from Cookeville last week to pass some time with her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Horn, who has been sick for some days with something like influenza.

Geo. A. Taylor has purchased a grocery store and lunch counter in Chattanooga at 333 East Main Street, and is doing well. His many friends here will wish him success.

We like to sell Tanlac because it satisfies our customers. Craig's Pharmacy.

A. B. Wyatt has purchased the residence formerly owned by A. L. Angel and has rented it to Rev. W. C. Creaman. The property is well located and is a comfortable and pleasant place to live.

You may have a chance to buy as much for one or two dollars as the Reed Mercantile Company is offering in their ad. in this issue, but such chances are very scarce. Read their ad. and then take a look at the goods, you may save some good money by taking advantage of the bargains they offer. You cannot possibly lose and looking will cost you nothing.

Tanlac is one medicine that does what they say it will do. Craig's Pharmacy.

M. F. Reed was in Knoxville last week making purchases for the Reed Mercantile Company. Mr. Reed is Vice President of the Appalachian Business Mens' Association, which meets in Knoxville each year. The next meeting is to be held March 8, and Mr. Reed is on for a discussion of one of the topics.

Mrs. Lucy Beadley has been confined to her bed for some days as the result of a sudden weakness that attacked her last week. She is now in her 84th year and has been remarkably strong for one of her advanced years. Her son, H. E. Beadley, who is Assistant Superintendent for the Briar Hill Collieries, Crawford, came over Saturday to see her.

Trustee T. F. Brown has been advised by Congressman W. F. Clouse that he has secured a pension for Mrs. Mary Ann Stone, widow of the late Patrick L. Stone, at the rate of $30 a month effective from June 15, 1921, also accrued pension to date of the death of her husband. This will be gratifying news to the many friends of Mrs. Stone.

H. P. Rimmer was in from Pomona last week on his way to Knoxville on business. Mr. Rimmer recently made a visit to friends in Dallas, Texas, and vicinity. He found conditions there more depressed in a business way than here. He is much pleased with this country and thinks our county promises much to those who wish to develop a farm with the view to making a comfortable home. The only complaint he has to make is that our roads are not what he would like to see.

C. A. Jackson was over from Pomona Saturday. When seen by the editor of the Chronicle he expressed himself much pleased with this country, but very much disappointed at the present road conditions. Mr. Jackson moved here from Lawrence county a few years ago and purchased the F. H. Washburn farm. His faith in the future of this section and the belief that road conditions would be rapidly improved was what induced him to locate here. He is an excellent citizen and our county would be much benefited by many more such men locating here and they would be heartily welcomed by our people.

Advertise Your Strong Point

SURELY there's at least one thing about your store that sets it head and shoulders above you competitor's place.

- You deliver to farmers.
- You guarantee quality.
- You keep open evenings.
- You give discount stamps.
- Your clerks are always courteous.

Emphasize your strongest point in all your newspaper advertising. Hammer it Home. Keep it up everlastingly. If you can "boil it down" to a few strong words as a slogan, so much the better.

The special bargains that you advertise, bring immediate business. It is needful. The store policy that you advertise constantly, builds good will. That is needful, too.

THE ADVERTISING CLUB OF ST. LOUIS

A. B. Wyatt was over from Isoline Saturday looking after the residence property he recently purchased from A. L. Angel.

Mrs. J. T. Horn arrived home Thursday from Nashville, where she has been for several days with her husband, who sustained a serious operation recently. Mr. Horn was getting splendidly when Mrs. Horn left and he is expected to make such progress from now on as will render him able to come home in a short time.

Miss Addie Henry was in town Monday on her way home at Isoline after having completed the Lantana school. Her services there comprised only six weeks as she was simply filling out the incomplete work of another person. Miss Henry plans to leave Friday of next week for Sheridan, Wyoming, to take a position of bookkeeper for a general store there. Her brother, Everett Henry, is located in Sheridan as traveling salesman for a Denver, Colorado, wholesale firm. Miss Henry has been teaching in the county for a few years and has met with marked success and her many friends here will gladly join with the editor in wishing her unbounded success in her new field of labor.

In this issue Harvey W. Derrick announces as a candidate for trustee in the coming republican primary. Mr. Derrick attended school at Grandview for two years and recently completed a business course in Draughton's Business College. From the best information we are able to obtain we are led to believe the young man—he is around 25 years of age—is honorable, capable and a gentleman in every respect. His appearance is that of young man full of energy, honesty of purpose and he faces every one with that frankness of countenance that leads one to feel that he is a man of clean life and worthy of the confidence of good people. Just the kind of a man that the people would gladly place in such a position of trust.

You can get a Waterman Fountain Pen at the Chronicle office that will surpass almost anything you can buy

Rev. Robert Hall was here from Jamestown last week.

J. J. Castleman was here from Montecrey Sunday.

E. O. Hembree was here from Nashville the first of the week looking after business.

W. T. Hale has won the distinction of being, perhaps, the most advanced breeder of Duroc Jersey hogs in the county. He has just sold four bred gilts, eight months old, for $30 and $35 each. The price he sold for was very reasonable for no better hogs can be secured at any price and there is every probability that hogs no better would cost $50 or more, plus cartage quickly sold them and other per-riage charges, if purchased at a distance. A little ad he put in the Chron-sons as wanting more at the same figure. That shows what pure blood hogs mean as compared with scrubs or mixed breeds, which would very likely not have brought to exceed $75 for the four.

Absolute merit and merit alone is responsible for Tanlac's phenomenal and unprecedented success. Craig's Pharmacy.

In this issue A. E. Taobr comes before the people as a candidate for trustee. He is a son of Logan Tabor, lives near Isoline, was raised as a farmer and has lived on a farm practically all his life. He is a young man of good intelligence and is highly respected by the people of his neighborhood. He was a student of Pleasant Hill Academy and secured the greater part of his education in that institution. He has the bearing and countenance of an honest and clean minded man, one whom is entitled to the respect and confidence of all good people. While he is not personally well known to the editor of the Chronicle, we have made inquiry relative to him and do not hesitate to commend him to the voters as, capable, honest and a manly and courteous gentleman. He expects to make a thorough canvass of the county and present his claims in person to the voters for their support.
